

CONSTITUTION #3 • Article 3

Article III

name: _____

Part I • Definition

1. Original Jurisdiction (A3,S2,C2) -
2. Appellate Jurisdiction (A3,S2,C2) -
3. Treason (A3,S3,C1) -

Part II • Multiple Choice

- _____ 4. Article 3, Section 1, states that the Supreme Court and inferior courts have the right to:
- a. appoint federal judges
 - b. impeach the President
 - c. interpret legal cases or "judicial power"
 - d. make the laws
- _____ 5. Article 3, Section 1, provides that inferior or lesser courts are established by:
- a. The President
 - b. the Constitution
 - c. The Supreme Court
 - d. Congress
- _____ 6. Article 3, Section 1, states that federal judges hold office:
- a. for two years
 - b. for four years
 - c. for two years
 - d. As long as they have good behavior
- _____ 7. Article 3, section 2, clause 1, states federal courts have jurisdiction over cases that involve:
- a. cases involving public ministers and consuls
 - b. cases affecting ambassadors
 - c. a case where a State is involved
 - d. all of the above
- _____ 8. Article 3, Section 2, Clause 3, guarantees trial by jury for federal crimes except in cases of:
- a. impeachment
 - b. disputes between states
 - c. bribery
 - d. treason

Part III • Completion

9. Why do you think the constitution provides that federal judges can hold office as long as they have good behavior which could be for their entire life? (A3, S1)

10. Treason is the only crime defined in the Constitution. Why do you think the founding fathers specifically define treason?

11. Who gets to determine the punishment for someone accused of treason? (A3, S3, C2)

12. No one may be charged for treason unless how many witnesses agree to the charge? (A3, S3, C1)