

Forms of Government Activity

Directions: With your desk partner you will be assigned a country and you will have to research what form of government that country has (there may be more than one). Give a description of the country, how the form of government looks like, or operates in the country given, list out leader or leaders, draw out the country, label the capital, and draw out the form of government it has.